
Youth Market Steer, Hog, Lamb, Dairy Beef and Goat Sale

In Conjunction With the

WEST LAMPETER COMMUNITY FAIR

Friday, September 24, 2010

6:30 P.M.

The FFA is a national organization of, by and for students studying Agriculture Education under the provisions of the National Vocational Acts.

A supervised farming program is an integral part of Agriculture Education, which provides the students with the practical experiences needed for proficiency in farming.

4-H is the youth segment of Co-operative Extension, which is an integral part of Penn State University. The goal of 4-H is to teach each member life skills and build self-esteem and citizenship.

The steers, hogs and lambs consigned for sale are direct results of practical training in Agriculture Education, FFA and 4-H.

The Youth Market Steer, Hog, Lamb, Dairy Beef and Goat Sale is open to FFA and 4-H exhibitors and is limited to students from Lampeter-Strasburg, Penn Manor, Pequea Valley and Solanco School Districts. To be sold, the animals must have been shown in the FFA or 4-H classes of the fair.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Every animal consigned is pledged to absolute sale. If there are two or more bids on the same group of animals they shall be sold to the highest bidder. There will be one sale committee and all animals can be paid with one check.
2. The animals will be sold as shown. Each group will consist of light, medium, and heavy weight classes as shown and judged. The hogs will weigh between 230 and 280 lbs. and the lambs will weigh between 90 and 150 lbs. The steers weight must be over 1000 lbs. and Dairy Beef weight must be 400 pounds. Market goats must weigh 60-110 pounds.
3. The official weigh-in upon arrival at the Fair will become the weight the animal is sold at Friday night.
4. The terms of settlement for the sale are CASH. No animal is to be removed from the Fair grounds until satisfactory settlement has been made with the sales clerk.
5. The animals sold may be removed anytime after the completion of the sale and not later than 8:00 a.m., Saturday.
6. All animals are at risk and expense of buyers when struck off, but every possible courtesy will be given buyers to protect their interest. The management acts as agent only and cannot assume responsibility for any animal in the sale.
7. The consignors are active members of the FFA and 4-H.
8. A 2% commission will be taken for check-off, programs, buyers' complimentary meals, and sale supplies.
9. Jeff Gerlach will be chairman of the Sale Barn Committee.
10. Sales order - Beef, Hogs, Lambs, Dairy Beef, Goat.
11. Buy back prices for the animals will be available the evening of the sale.
12. Arrangements must be made ahead of time as to where animal is going and who is hauling it.
13. There will be no resale of animals. Animals whose proceeds wish to be donated can be disposed of as the buyer wishes. Proceeds can be mailed directly to that organization.
